BAL HARBOUR POLICE DEPARTMENT

Weekly Summary Report

Weekly Code Enforcement Efforts

Comments:

The Code Enforcement unit issued one warning within the gated community this week. The warning was for advertising an open house. The realtor was contacted and advised of the Village code which allows for open houses by invitation only. Additionally, the Code Enforcement unit is investigating a complaint of units with unpermitted work at the Whitehall Condominiums. The investigation is ongoing at this time.

Criminal Investigations Division Weekly Summary Report

Comments:

In an effort to provide awareness and educational tips regarding the detection and prevention of fraud offenses, the criminal investigations division organized a training seminar for several local businesses. The criminal investigations detectives provided relevant literature to the managers and employees. Detectives also conducted formal follow-up interviews in an active burglary investigation.

Noteworthy Incidents / Arrests

Date	Incident Type	Location
02/09/2018	Theft	Santa Fe Café / Bal Harbour Shops

Comments:

Bal Harbour Police were contacted regarding a theft at the Sante Fe Café. The victim advised the officers that while she was dining, she placed her purse on the purse caddy near her table. The victim completed her meal and went to the City of Aventura when she discovered several items were missing from her purse. No other incidents were reported.

Date	Incident Type	Location
02/11/2018	Suspicious Incident	61 Camden Court

COMMENTS

Bal Harbour Police were summoned to 61 Camden Court regarding a suspicious incident. The resident advised the officer that while in the home, the burglar alarm was detonated. The resident checked the home and discovered an open door; however, no forced entry was detected. Bal Harbour officers issued a mandatory security check on the residence for the next 30 days. No other incidents were reported.

Date	Incident Type	Location
02/12/2018	Arrest / Vehicle Burglary	10250 Collins Avenue

COMMENTS

Bal Harbour Police were notified of a suspicious individual loitering in the area of 10200 block of Collins Avenue. As the officers arrived in the area, the subject fled and discarded some clothing items in an attempt to change his appearance. After a brief foot pursuit, Bal Harbour officers apprehended the individual. A preliminary investigation revealed the individual had just burglarized a vehicle. The individual was arrested and charged with several felony and misdemeanor offenses. No other incidents or injuries were reported.

BAL HARBOUR POLICE DEPARTMENT

Weekly Summary Report

Date	Incident Type	Location
02/14/2018	Noise Disturbance	212 Bal Bay Drive
COMMENTS
Bal Harbour Police were summoned to the area of 212 Bal Bay Drive regarding someone igniting fireworks. Officers arrived and located the individuals responsible for the fireworks. Officers issued the individuals a warning and instructed them on the proper protocols required for firework demonstrations.

Date	Incident Type	Location
02/14/2018	Arrest / Driving Under the Influence	10200 Block of Collins Avenue
COMMENTS
While patrolling the Collins Avenue corridor, a Bal Harbour officer noticed a vehicle travelling on Collins Avenue with a flat tire. In an effort to assist the motorist, the officer conducted a traffic stop. As the officer engaged the driver, he detected behaviors indicative of impairment. The officer administered roadside sobriety test and subsequently arrested the motorist for driving under the influence of alcohol. No injuries or damages were reported.
